

HONOLULU STAR-BULLETIN

FOIAb3b

EVENING 104,212
SUNDAY 113,498

CPYRGHT

MIWA

GIUGNI

TEEHAN

IGE

Inouye Names 6 Isle Residents To Posts On Washington Staff

CPYRGHT

Sen-elect Dan K. Inouye yesterday announced the appointment of six local residents, including two University of Hawaii professors, to his Washington staff.

THEY ARE:

Thomas H. Ige, chairman of the University's department of economics, administrative assistant.

Jack Teehan, former Honolulu Advertiser investigative reporter, press assistant.

Henry K. Giugni, Honolulu liquor inspector, special assistant.

Ralph M. Miwa, associate professor of government, legislative and research assistant.

Miss Lameta L. G. Holt and Miss Kimie Ishibashi, secretaries.

IGE REPLACES Alfred

Laureta, who was administrative assistant during Inouye's three years as a U.S. representative. Laureta is expected to receive an appointment as State director of labor and industrial relations.

Ige will join Inouye's staff Feb. 1. He is former director of the University's Asian Studies Program and was with the Wage Stabilization Board from 1950 to 1953. He was with Pacific Military Combat Intelligence during World War II and holds a doctor of philosophy degree from the University of Wisconsin.

TEEHAN, who came to Hawaii in 1957 as a reporter for the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, won several Honolulu Press Club awards for his work. He is immediate past president of the Press Club. He is a graduate of Pittsfield, Mass., High School and attended the University of Missouri. During World War II, he won a Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with four oak leaf clusters as a B-17 pilot in Europe.

He and Giugni join In-

GIUGNI has been active in the Democratic Party since 1951 and in Inouye's campaigns since 1957. He was State coordinator of Inouye's successful bid for a U.S. Senate seat this year and is a Democratic State Central Committee member. Giugni attended Iolani School and the University of Hawaii and was a Honolulu policeman from 1948 to 1951, before becoming a liquor inspector.

He was with the 298th Infantry Regiment on Guadalcanal and in the New Hebrides during World War II.

MIWA, a graduate of Farrington High School, holds bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Hawaii and a doctor of philosophy degree in political science from Johns Hopkins University of Baltimore, Md.

Miwa once served with the Central Intelligence Agency. He has been a college teacher since 1948 and has taught at Johns Hopkins, St. John's College of Annapolis, Md., the University of Missouri and the University of Nebraska as well as the University of Hawaii. He will join Inouye's staff Feb. 1.